Pete Thomas bests Jerry Beavers and Gordon Stuntz for Age Bracket Title!

In the first Age Bracket Tourney held in Shreveport, LA, Pete Thomas qualified first in the 50-59 age group to receive a bye, then defeated Delery Matherne and Joe Lecroy to survive the 50-59 division. Jerry also earned a bye, then defeated Leo Markwardt and Fred Barnes to win the 70 & over division. Gordon Stuntz qualified 6th, then defeated General Whitfield, John Shuffler, Rick Minier and Randy Summers to reach the title match. In the final game, Pete got lined up early and shot 279 to lock it up. Jerry had 225 to Gordon's 190 to grab the 2nd spot.

Thanks to Mike and Josephine Thomas for hosting this tournament. Also, a big shout-out to the Horseshoe Hotel and Casino for sponsoring this event. They put $2500 in the prize fund.

The scoring was high in qualifying, especially in the 50-59 group. Joe Lecroy, Bob Troutt, Mark Busscher, Rick Cheshier all had 300 games. In the finals, the 60 yr olds shot big. As always, the matches are thrilling to watch. The 2nd game often produces a complete turnaround of the first game. Almost every match seems to come down to the last few frames.

Our next tournament is a member/guest doubles at Armadilla I in Pasadena, TX this coming weekend. The following week is the Regular Trio at Cityview in Fort Worth, TX. Then, the next weekend is a regular singles at Tomball Bowl in Tomball, TX.

Jim's Notes

General threw it great! Lance is still smiling! Neptune finished strong and barely missed! Toby Yeager traveled the farthest...and won the Sunday Sweeper. Ronnie and Pickett almost made it. There were Sonny Haynes and Robert Gibbs sightings. Boshers is getting married and she is a winner!

Jims Tips: More on grips. If you're still using the same grip you have for years, you might want to get it checked. Seniors who are still using reverse pitch on their thumbholes have more trouble repeating releases and using minimal grip pressure than those who have converted to forward pitches. The span is important as well and your span will change over the years as you age. Do yourself a favor and get it checked by a competent pro shop operator.
