

Rivers, Martin, Watson Win Trio Event at Cowtown!

Gene Rivers, Steve Martin and Chris Watson qualified 3rd and awaited the winners of the first Baker-style match in the stairstep finals in the 60/50/Guest Trio Event at Cowtown Bowling Palace in Fort Worth, TX. In the first match, the trio of Ron Depolo, Pete Thomas and Anthony Lavery-Spahr eked out a close match over Gary Dickinson, Ziggy Czaja and Mike Donahue 206-202. Rivers and crew then squeaked by 194-190 before blasting A. C. Adam, Phil Hughes and Joey Hafner 257-152. In the title match, qualifying leaders Jim Stephens, Phil Kepner and Chris Johnson, who never fell out of the top five, had early split trouble and carry problems and fell to the champs 225-171. It was Gene's 4th title and Steve's first.

Thanks to Steve Wunderlich, Jamie Brooks and crew for being gracious hosts. The tournament was high scoring as usual at Cowtown.

300s were bowled by Danny Adkins, Eric Traylor, Bob Troutt and Mark Markham. As always with the Swiss format, the matches usually came down to the 10th frame and there was lots of rising and falling in the standings.

Our next tournament is a member/guest doubles at Shreveport on Dec. 6-7. The tournament is full with a waiting list. The following week is the Annual Christmas Tournament at Cowtown. Entries have to be a multiple of five so the computer can pick the teams. The last 2 or 3 could get shut out, so get your entries in early. After Saturday's qualifying, we will have a free BBQ dinner and Awards Banquet in the basement of the bowl. Please let us know if you plan to attend and if you have any guests. Guest meals are $10 ea. Come see who will win Bowler of the Year in 3 age groups and Rookie of the Year. Kathy King will be inducted into the Hall of Fame for service. Don't miss it!

Jim's Notes

Leoni Aragoni was sighted as was Don Holland. Neptune threw it great! Jesse Jackson had the oldest team... with Magoo bowling as the guest!

Jim's Tips: More on shoes. If you don't have a pair of bowling shoes with replaceable soles, you are likely giving up shots to the field...or at least everyone who does have them. If you are sticking with the sole on your shoe and a slide sock is too slippery, you need something in between. A little slip or a little stick isn't something you should overlook. It's hard on your back and knees and costs you pins. Spend the extra money and get a pair!
