Ricky Siegfried Wins Shootout at Del-Mar!

In a finals where the lead changed hands almost every game, 6 players could conceivably still win the title entering the title match. Ricky led A.C. Adam by 35 pins. Thomas Young was in 3rd facing T. J. Johnson and Pete Thomas was in 5th facing John Austin Jr. 6th place was only 100 pins out, so anything could happen. Thru 6 frames, all could still capture the title if Ricky faltered. He started XXXX/X. A. C. had XX/XX/. Thomas began /X/XX/. T. J. went XXXXXX. Pete began /XXXXX and John XXXXXX. Everyone was striking. Ricky and A.C. got two more strikes. Thomas got two more. T.J. went /X. Pete struck twice more and John got a spare and strike. A. C. struck in the 9th and got one in the 10th and finished with 246. T. J. opened in the 10th and Thomas struck out for 249...poised to go into 2nd, if Ricky faltered. John finished with 266 and Pete struck till the 11th for 279. Ricky needed a mark with good count to defeat A. C. and win. He struck in the 9th and got the first strike in the 10 to seal the deal and finished with a 268. Clutch bowling Ricky! Thomas went into 2nd, A. C. 3rd, Pete moved to 4th and T. J. got 5th.

Thanks to Mike Holland and crew for being great hosts! It's always fun to go to Del-Mar. The shot was fair and held up well.

300s were bowled by Ricky, Bubba Haney and Edmond Lorts.

In two weeks, we're at Cowtown for a 60/50/guest trio. The tourney is full with a waiting list. Dec. 6-7, we're going to Shreveport at All Star Lanes for a M/G Doubles. The Horseshoe Hotel and Casino is sponsoring...adding $2500 into our prize fund. Don't get shut out, as it will fill at 64 teams. The following week is the Annual Christmas Tourney at Cowtown. The entry fee is $190 and requires you to have bowled 3 tournaments since last Christmas tournament. No online or phone entries for this one, as the total entries have to be a multiple of 5, so the computer can pick the teams. We use the Swiss format and anyone can win. Last year, we had 20 teams and 18 of them cashed with the bottom two winning Brunswick bowling balls. A free BBQ dinner is included with your entry. The annual awards banquet will be held immediately after bowling on Saturday. Bowlers of the Year in each age group will be awarded and Kathy King will be inducted into the SASBA Hall of Fame for service. Don't miss it!

Jim's Notes

John Austin Jr. made his first finals, but there will be more. We had 3 new bowlers at DelMar. Tom King and John Caldwell were back after long absences. There was a Gerald Gumina sighting! Seibel just missed. Two septuagenarians made the finals.

Jim's Tips: Leverage checks: If you aren't sliding in front of your previous step (filling the hole), you're losing leverage. If you don't have any lateral lean (to your ballside) in order to have the swing under or inside your chin, you're losing leverage. If your slide foot isn't stopped when the ball passes it, you're losing leverage. If your slide leg is straight or back bent over more than 45 degrees, you guessed it...you're losing leverage. None of these are easy fixes. If you want to change any of these or other flaws in your game find a competent coach and practice smarter.
