

SASBA

Out on The Twig

ROBLAW goes last to first for first SASBA Title!

Robert Lawrence was in 28th place starting Sunday morning. Entering the last qualifying game, he was still 51 pins out of the cut. He Reeled off a 10 bagger for 289 to make the cut by 1 pin. He then proceeded to win 6 1/2 matches out of 7 to climb all the way to 2nd, 19 pins behind Danny Inocencio. Thomas Young was in 3rd, Mike Austin in 4th and Pete Seibel was in 5th...only 93 pins from the leader. Any of the five could still win. Danny started XXX. Robert starts /XXX. Thomas starts XXX/. Mike began /X/ and Pete goes XXXX. Any of the five could still win. Mike struggled with carry and ended with 203. Thomas never managed a double again and shot 213. Pete got two more Xs, then 10 pin, X, 10 pin, XXX for 259. Danny washed out, then split, then XXXX. Robert got a spare, then doubled again. He could shut Danny out if he sruck out, but a 10 pin, then X on the fill ball for 225. So, if Danny could get the first one in the 10th, he would win his first title. He made a seemingly good shot from in front of the ball return, but the bucket stood and Robert had his first victory. Pete climbed to 3rd, Thomas got 4th, and Charlie Falco went around Mike for 5th.

Robert proved, once again, why you are hardly ever out of it. And...if you don't quit, work hard, sometimes you can catch lightning in a bottle and have a magical day!

Thanks to Don Ellis Jr and Don Ellis Sr for being great hosts! The shot was fair and held up well. The bowlers really liked all the little extras...like fruit, water and energy bars in the paddock. They enjoyed hosting and want us back again.

Danny and Mike Warren had the only 300s.

Our next tournament is the member/member doubles at Cowtown in Fort Worth, Tx. The following week, we'll be at Hog Pin Bowl in Lawton for member/guest doubles.

Jim's Notes

We had seven new members and Mark Finley, Mark London and Charlie Falco all made the finals in their first tournament. Busscher is back. Kirk has a big fan club (The Krykets). At Emerald, the auction was great...lots of bidders. Handegard throws it good as ever.

Jims Tips: Everyone our age should have a little shoe-check built in to their pre-shot routine. It's easy to pick up a piece of tape, step in a wet spot or lose a heel in between shots. Don't just take a little back and forth slide with the sole, but check the heel as well. It's too dangerous not to do this.

Friday Sweeper Results

Notes: The next tournament is the Annual Member/Member Doubles at Cowtown. Remember two champions can't bowl together unless at least one is over 60. Also, in April is a Member/Guest Double at Hog Pin Bowl in Lawton, OK followed by a Super Senior/Guest Doubles at Cowtown. There has been a change to the schedule—the Four-some at Plano and the Singles at Del-Mar in November have switched weekends.
