Charlie Hufford, Tommy Martin, Tyler Corbin Win Trio in Kenner!

The trio team of Charlie Hufford, Tommy Martin and Tyler Corbin led after most of the games during the 12 games of qualifying, but fell to 4th in the last game...meaning they would have to win four Baker-style matches to capture the victory. In the first match, they bowled Drew Beierlein, Brian Bodenheimer and Justin Veitch...the 5th place qualifiers. Both had an early open and Drew & co. grabbed the lead, but a 10-pin in the 10th by Veitch gave Corbin room if he struck out. He did and they advanced 237-232. The 3rd place qualifiers were Paul McCordic, Mark Busscher and Eric Traylor. They had two early opens and lost to Charlie's crew 237-213. They then dispatched Jim Stephens, Donald Robinson and Daniel Adams 214-202 to take on the tournament leaders Doug Hayes, Pete Thomas and Ted Pritts. They started with the front six, while Doug's team had an open and two doubles, but a split by Tyler game them hope. Pete struck, Doug struck, but Ted hung a 10-pin and Charlie and Tommy rebounded with a double to put it away 245-226. Clutch bowling and exciting matches are always evident in the Swiss format...both in qualifying and the finals. It was Charlie's 10th title and Tommy's 2nd.

AMF All-Star did a great job of hosting. The shot was fair and high scoring. This is a well-run AMF center...clean and a great staff.

300s were bowled by Donald Robinson, Sean Lavery-Spahr, Greg Walters, Jr., and Norm Spurlock.

This was the first SASBA Trio outside of Texas and it was a big hit with the NOLA bowlers. We had 33 teams and are going back in September for a repeat... same format, same entry fee. After Denton next week, we have a week off, then we'll have a Member/Guest "Open" Doubles in San Antonio. You can bowl with anyone except a bowler you've won with before.

Jim's Notes

Dean Courtade, 87 yrs young, threw out a ceremonial first ball. Dean was an original PBA member and the first bowler in Louisiana to average over 200... in 1958. He is a legend in New Orleans and still throws it great! We had a small tribute to Kenny Robertson, another NOLA legend, who passed away last week. Kenny's family was there and everyone wore bowlers tape with KR on it. We had one woman bowl, Brandi Sanderson, and they tied for 5th, but lost the tiebreaker.

Jim's Tips: Teamwork-It's very important in a team format, such as the Swiss - style tourneys SASBA runs, to communicate honestly and openly with your teammates. After a split to open a match, your teammates need to know if it was you or the lane. This is the time to check your ego at the front door. Don't be afraid to move after a bad result on a well-thrown shot. Don't automatically move after a bad result on a poorly-thrown shot.
