Bob Spaulding Wins Annual Non-Champs in Storybook Fashion!

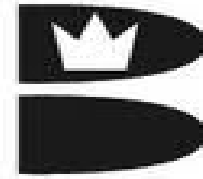

After Saturday's 8 games of qualifying, Charlie Mills led by a wide margin and it looked like he would lap the field. Bob Spaulding finished at +27, was in 65th place in the standings and thought his tournament was finished. Bob had not yet bowled a regular singles format and didn't realize that there were four more games of qualifying on Sunday morning. Taking full advantage of the opportunity, he shot 1038 Sunday... concluding with the only 300 of the tournament, then waited to see if he would make the finals. He did...qualifying 16th and promptly ran off 7 consecutive match play wins... running down everyone in front of him, including Charlie. In the title match, Bob was bowling Kurt Gengelbach. 7 pins behind Kurt was Pete Seibel and Bill Alexander was 88 pins further back in 4th... Charlie in 5th. Kurt started slow, then hung a stone 8-10 (lefthanded). Bob got a turkey and stayed clean. Meanwhile, Pete was struggling... leaving a blowout 7-10, while Bill spared, then started a long string of strikes. When the smoke cleared, Bob shot 227 and had enough to stay in front of Bill who leapfrogged over Kurt and Pete with a 256. Charlie bounced back from 5th with a 245 to get 3rd. Pete finished 4th and Kurt rounded out the top five. What a finish and what a tournament!

Thanks to Cityview Lanes for being gracious hosts.

We had 7 first time bowlers at Cityview. 4 made the finals. Tom King made it for the first time since his injury. 77 yrs young Albert Waites made it and finished in the top 10. Pender got there with a 279 finish Sun. morning. There were extreme road conditions on Friday and Saturday, yet 87 bowlers still made the trip. Everyone returned Sunday morning...a rarity. Waydago SASBA Bowlers!

Next week, we're in Kenner, LA for a 60/50/ Guest Trio Event at AMF All Star. The following week, we're back up in Denton Zone for a 70/60/50/50 foursome. We have 6 spots left. Don't get shut out.

Jim's Notes

Tracy Camper also had a 1038 Sunday morning! Burkett got his first check! Donny Davis just missed! Leon Schon threw it great! Willie J made it...on one knee!

Jim's Tips: You just got a new pearl and you start practice looking for the same ball shape you saw in league last week. It's the only ball you take out of the bag. You make a perfect shot and it ends up flush. You make a few more great shots and they back end like you had envisioned. More great shots... more strikes. Then, they turn the lights on. Perfect shot...strike. Perfect shot...strike. Tug it 2 boards

...pocket 7-10. Perfect shot...strike. Miss outside 1 board...4-9 or 6-8. What happened? You just got suckered into playing the wrong surface ball because of you didn't insist that the pins give you more feedback in the practice. The lesson: Don't spend your entire practice lining up with the wrong ball! Find the ball that allows you to miss.
