C.K. Moore wins Thriller in Annual Non-Champs at Westcreek!

In a closely contested finals at Brunswick Westcreek in Fort Worth, TX, C. K. Moore edged out Gary James to win his first SASBA tournament. Gary led C.K. by only four pins entering the title match. Bill Alexander was in 3rd and could leapfrog both with a monster game. C. K. took the suspense out early by stringing strikes and finished with a 279. Bill had split problems and was overtaken for 3rd by Donny Yow. Ray Graham rounded out the top five.

Thanks to the short-handed crew at Westcreek for being great hosts.

Next week is one of our majors... The Firecracker at Plano Super Bowl. Two 8-game blocks of qualifying on Friday and Saturday. Sunday is double-elimination match play finals. Half the field cashes. Entry fee is $230. Sweepers on Wednesday will start late...at 3:30.

Two weeks after that, we'll be at Cityview for the 67/60/50 Trio event. 15 teams signed up already. You must have at least two over 60 on each team and one has to be over 67. Swiss format will be used. The last week in July is our member/guest doubles at Copperfield in Houston. Legend Bill Lillard will be hanging out at the bowl. Don't miss it!

Jim's Notes

Alexander had the only 300...in the finals. Rick McKinney showed up and just missed...by 3 pins. We had 3 first time bowlers. Fuller was on a seesaw. Everyone's hero O.D. Wingard made it. Randy Ham got no sleep Fri. night and bowled like a gorilla Saturday. Unfortunately, he got some sleep Saturday night.

Jim's Tips: Mental game stuff. Try to remember that if you bowl a terrible game...for whatever reason (bad luck, execution, distractions, etc.) that it won't be the worst thing that ever happens to you. And, it's probably not the first time it has happened, nor will it be the last. If you are thinking about more than just the next shot, then you are thinking way too much. Also, remember the old adage "Life is comprised of 15% what happens to you and 85% how you react to what happens to you".
