Out on The Twig

David Anthony wins 2nd SASBA Title at Armadilla I!

In a weekend where players were moving up and down the leader board like yo-yos, the one constant was David Anthony who stayed in 1st place from start to finish. He had to stay within 58 pins in the title match and an early double and turkey ended any mystery. Bubba Haney ended on an upswing to grab 2nd place. Randy Summers finished with a rush to get 3rd, Jon Delaney got 4th and Cordell Wilder rounded out the top five. It was David's 2nd SASBA title.

Thanks to Randy Ray, Danna and Bobby Browder for being great hosts! Danna still makes the world's best banana pudding! The shot was fair and high scoring.

300s were shot by Anthony, Ray Graham, Neptune, Mike Lynch, Willie Wells, and Donald Robinson. Clarence McQueen had two!

Our next two tourneys are full...the foursome at Cowtown and the SS Singles at Denton. September 13-14, we'll be at Hammond, LA for a member/guest doubles. Tangi Lanes is a great host and we hope to fill that tournament with 48 teams. Then, we're at Plano Super Bowl for the Two-in-One singles (two separate tournaments...50-59, 60& over...regular formats. The last week in September is a 67/50/Guest Trio at Astro Bowl in San Antonio.

Let us know if you need a third member or want to bowl, but don't have a team in San Antonio.

Jim's Notes

Several bowlers in Pasadena were coming back after serious illnesses or surgeries. Four made the finals. It's heartwarming to see our bowlers bounce back after serious setbacks. It doesn't happen easily, but takes a lot of work, practice, rehab and dedication. We had five first time bowlers at Armadilla I.

Jim's Tips: Sometimes, you find a pair where one lane is drastically different than the other. One way of handling this problem is to throw a different ball on each lane...matching up better than with one ball. You have to know your game well enough to make this analysis, but more importantly, you have to have the courage to make this commitment. David Anthony displayed this in the title match at Pasadena...having made this determination in the practice and the game he bowled on that pair earlier. Good move David!

Friday Sweeper Results

1. Don Robinson 521
2. Randy Summers 499
3. Richard Turner 494
4. Randy Summers 493
5. Clyde Fravel 493
