

SASBA

Out on The Twig

Dave Lundgren wins 1st SASBA Title!

Dave Lundgren was getting lots of strikes all weekend, but a few low games kept knocking him down in the standings. He had finally grabbed the lead for the title match, but 2nd place Fred Barnes, 3rd place Roger West, 4th place T. J. Johnson and 5th place Tom King could all conceivably win the title if they shot a big game and the leaders faltered. Fred had a 10 pin lead on Dave after an early split by Lundgren. If Fred struck out, he would sew up the title. A split in the 9th let Dave back in it and he took it off the sheet to nail down his first SASBA title. Congrats Dave! Roger finished strong to move up to 2nd. Fred held 3rd, Doug Barron jumped from 6th to 4th...followed by T. J. and Tom.

Thanks to Susan Ellis and crew for being gracious hosts.

Our next tournament is the Firecracker at Plano Super Bowl. This is two separate tournaments (Super Seniors and 50-59). Qualifying is 8 games Saturday, 8 games Sunday followed by match play finals on Monday. The match play is 2 game matches and double elimination.

The following week, we'll be at Del-Mar for the first ever Member/Guest recruiter doubles. The guest has to be over 45 yrs old and if over 50, can never have bowled a SASBA as a 50 yr old.

Jim's Notes

Lundgren had the only 300 and 800. Milton Smith and Leon Aragon both left the lily. Ross didn't bowl my weight. Four septuagenarians made the finals and one bowled for the title. John Precourt was "zipping it" down the lane and almost made it. Joe Binder is throwing it great again.

Jim's Tip:

This weekend proved that some bowlers still struggle when the approaches are tacky. The humidity was high and patience was low and not everyone found a way to slide consistently. Many used "slide socks"...some with rubber heels and some with felt heels. Others used number 10 Dexter soles with a Teflon strip or two strategically placed. But, too many bowlers had shoes without interchangeable soles and heels. I think any bowler who is going to bowl multiple tournaments in multiple centers should invest in a high-end shoe with sole and heel options. This, plus a "slide sock", Teflon strips, etc. gives you a lot more choices when you run into these conditions. If you can't slide and be balanced, you can't even start to figure out the lanes.
